BOARD OF DIRECTORS' MESSAGE

Dear Members,

This month marks the beginning of a new year at the UICC, and with that a new board. It is with much pride that we acknowledge and recognize the work and effort of those who stepped down last month, President Karen Kinahan, Vice-President Bill Luqué, and Members-at-Large, John Ring and Dr. Mick Vaughn.

Since 2005, members of the UICC Board have worked hard to keep the UICC relevant to today's Irish and Irish-American Community. The Board concentrated on events and programs that would bring charter members, young families, and new friends back to the Center.

- We re-opened the restaurant upon return of Tom Clune in 2006, renewed interest in Rose of Tralee event; organized concerts like David Munnelly, Flook, Karan Casey, and John McNicholl; and hosted holiday parties geared toward the children and grandchildren of our founding members. We also opened the restaurant for lunch, and we greatly appreciate the consistent support of our members who started weekly/monthly events like the Pat Dillon Party or the KRB lunch. Our undying gratitude goes to Tom Clune, Joe McDonald, and the Operations Committee who have volunteered numerous hours for the success of the Restaurant.

- We partnered with other Irish organizations to provide for our community through special events and benefits like the Seamus Whitney Event, the Emerald Extravaganza, the Pomeroy Fundraiser, the Lefty O'Doul Night, and the Irish in San Francisco exhibit at the Center. We have partnered with Comhaltas and the San Francisco Irish Pipers to provide a space for people to learn more about Irish music, dance, and language.

- We have made necessary upgrades to our Center, such as purchasing a new dishwasher, sliding windows in member's room, new sound system downstairs, upgrade for our Aloha system, renovated our office space, installed photos of UICC history along the walls, and fixed sounds system in St. Francis Room

- We have bolstered our communication to our members and prospective members. In 2006, we launched a new website and started publishing a full-page ad in the Irish Herald to compliment the news received by our members. We also started sending monthly emails to our membership to inform them of events.

- Most importantly, we have made plans to sustain the Center in the near and long-term future. We established the annual pledge - thank you to all members who have annually supported the Center in this way. And, we established the Irish Cultural Centre of California, a 501c3 established for the promotion and celebration of Irish culture, for the benefit of the members of the UICC and the general public. We also made efforts to organize the business of the UICC with a procedure manual, reports, database, etc.

This month, the next Board embarks on a journey that will guarantee the UICC's future in the years to come.

- In the year to come, we will work to increase reporting on the business at the UICC, maximizing our robust database for daily reports, analysis of our banquet business.

- We will work to reach agreement with union.

- We will work to further incorporate the UICC and the ICC, by transferring the Center's building to the ICC and maximizing the tax benefits of our 501c3. We will continue to promote the fundraising efforts of the ICC through programs like the Brick Campaign. We also look forward to stewarding the transfer of the Patrick J. Dowling Library and creating a center of Irish heritage at the Center.

- We will work to establish a business plan for the upcoming year, increasing our banquet and the Restaurant business and evaluating the benefits of hiring a General Manager.

- We will work to make improvements to the Building, such as installing a new sound system upstairs, renovating the St. Patrick's Room, the Board Room, and the kitchen downstairs, perhaps the Bar and Restaurant, along with continuing to maintain other areas of the building.

- We will work to continue our outreach to our members and other groups in the community.

This year will be exciting and we all look forward to what it will bring for the UICC and the Irish/Irish-American community.

Thank you! The UICC Board of Directors

INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL

Jamie Lundy, San Francisco Rose 2008

Photos by Liam Reilly

Jamie Lundy takes center stage surrounded by her Court.

Clockwise from top left: Some of our Rosebud Dads; Our Rosebuds take their place on stage

Our 11 Roses and Rosebuds receive their Roses and Posies;

Our dashing and very well behaved Escorts(!); Jamie with her family, Mum Maureen, Marlene, Killian & Dad Séamus

On Saturday, May 10, Ms Jamie Lundy (19) was selected to represent San Francisco at the 2008 Rose of Tralee International Festival in Co. Kerry. A Sunset native and graduate of SI Prep, Jamie is in her second year at San Francisco State where she double majors in Anthropology and English and is about to transfer to UC Berkeley to complete her degree.

With over 400 members of the Irish community gathered to support and encourage the entrants, Jamie was one of eleven highly accomplished and articulate young women who competed to win the title of San Francisco Rose. Joined by their junior Rosebuds and handsome Escorts, they made quite the dashing group!

The daughter of Séamus and Maureen Lundy of Sligo and Cork, respectively, Jamie has two siblings, Marlene and Killian. Jamie is the first member of her family to participate in the International Festival in Kerry.

In her own words, Jamie has a true appreciation of what it means to be Irish and the San Francisco Rose: "As a second generation Irish American balanced between two cultures, an Irish dancer and Gaelic football player, a brown bread baker and potato devourer, an Air Lingus frequent flyer and a St. Stephen's day celebrator, I long to be the San Francisco Rose with all my heart."

We wish her the best of luck as she prepares to represent our community in Tralee in August.

New Books

The library purchased the recently published "Irish in San Francisco" by John Garvey and Karen Hanning. A wonderful treasure trove of photos and information, the book features both the UICC and the library.

Some of the many donated books added to the library are: "Ireland: an Illustrated History" by Henry Weisser; "Rambles in Ireland" by Monie Begley; "Irish Blessings: a Photographic Celebration" and "Ireland: Art into History" by Raymond Gillespie. A big thank you to all our donors.

Library's Webpage

You can now view the library's 2008 new books from the library's webpage (www.irishcentersf.org). In addition, you can check out the library's journal titles and volumes. Here is just a sample of journals in the collection: Eire-Ireland - Journal of Irish Studies; The Irish Sword - Journal of the Military History Society of Ireland; and The Recorder, A Journal of the American Irish Historical Society.

Genealogy

Trying to trace your family back to Ireland? The library's seven-volume "The Famine Immigrants", which lists the names of the Irish immigrants arriving in New York 1846-1851, may be a good resource in finding that link. It also lists the individual's age, occupation and from which city they sailed. The library also has several books on the origin of Irish family names.

Guiney Family Bible

The Guiney Family Bible, which belonged to Patrician Guiney, was recently given to the library, as the donor was unable to locate any Guiney family members. If you are a member of the Guiney family who lived in San Francisco, or know how they can be contacted, please notify the librarian, Wendy King.
