BOARD OF DIRECTORS' MESSAGE

Dear Members,

With spring soon approaching, the Center is looking forward to hosting several upcoming events. Here are a few:

On Saturday, February 7th, the ICCC Scholarship Committee will be honoring Mr. John Moylan. Tickets are still available, so please join us in recognizing an exceptional member of our community.

The following week, the UICC restaurant will be offering a very special menu for Valentine's Day, which falls on a Saturday this year. Be sure to make reservations, and treat your special someone to a night out with good food and good music. If you can't make that, try coming to our very first Afternoon Tea in the Member's Room on Saturday, February 28th. Look for more information about this fun event inside the bulletin.

Something new for the Restaurant this year is the plan to open the Main Dining room for Dinner on Thursday evenings. This is tentatively scheduled to commence on March 5th. For those of you whose groups or clubs meet on Thursdays, you may now be able to include dinner plans. We will keep you posted.

This brings us up to March, and of course St. Patrick's Day. On Friday the 7th, the United Irish Societies will honor John O'Flynn, this year's Parade Grand Marshal, to be held in the St. Patrick's Ballroom. Don't forget the Ladies' Auxiliary Corned Beef and Cabbage Dinner. Always drawing a great crowd after the parade, it includes performances by Irish Dancers and Pipers. We are all working very hard to make sure there will be plenty of music, entertainment and food to be enjoyed throughout the weeklong celebrations.

Both the UICC and ICCC Boards of Directors continue to meet and move forward. Please look for an extended article and photos to be in this month's Irish Herald! It talks about the beginnings of the UICC, and the plans and hopes for its future. Speaking of the future of the UICC, arrangements are underway for the Brick Installations, so we urge you to get your orders in! For those of you who have sold or bought bricks, we thank you.

A reminder: if you have not sent in your 32/50 renewal yet, be sure to do so. Also, there are still some combinations available for sale until the end of February. Thanks to the 32/50 Club, the Center has been able to install security cameras, and other important upgrades for the building. We all appreciate this committee's continued work and dedication.

Sincerely,
The UICC Board of Directors

Purpose ~ Respect ~ Organization ~ Unity ~ Determination

Periodicals

An Coinneal

Over the years, Sean Dunne has donated copies of An Coinneal, the oldest parish magazine in Ireland and a gateway to the history of Kilgeever Parish in Louisburgh, Co. Mayo. An Coinneal (which means candle in Irish) is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year. Thank you, Sean, for your thoughtful and generous donation.

Rare and Historical Periodicals

Bound copies of the Nation newspaper, published in New York, 1848-1849

Bound copies of Irish Miscellany, published in Boston, 1858

Wolfe Tone Annual (earliest issues date back to the 1930s)

Dublin Review (earliest issues date back to the 1860s)

Complete lists of the library's magazines, newspapers, newsletters, bulletins and journals are now available on the library's webpage as well as in the library. A big thank you to volunteer Dorothy Sorensen for her assistance with this project.

Rare Book Profile

Irish Folk Music: a fascinating hobby with some account of allied subjects including O'Farrell's Treatise on the Irish or Union Pipes and Touhey's Hints to Amateur Pipers

Born in Trilibane, County Cork, Captain Francis O'Neill, a Chicago policeman, compiled and published his collection of Irish folk music in 1910. It is said that that Capt. O'Neill saved Irish music from being lost. Located in the wall display case, the library's copy is signed by the author. By his name he wrote "last copy of the first edition May 28, 1920".

Genealogy

Are you researching your Irish American ancestors who lived in San Francisco? They may appear in one of the city's Irish newspapers such as the Irish Nationalist, Irish News, Leader or the Monitor. The library has an index to microfilmed copies of the various newspapers, which are a fascinating window to the history of the Irish in San Francisco. Additionally, the microfilmed city directories 1861-1918 may show where they lived.

For those with Boston roots, the library has microfilm of the Pilot newspaper 1844-1865, as well as Boston City Directories 1844-1851 and Roxbury City Directories 1847-1860.
