BOARD OF DIRECTORS' MESSAGE

Dear Members,

We wish everyone a very happy St. Patrick's Day.

This mailing goes out to all our members, so a particular hello to all of you who have not subscribed to the monthly bulletin. You can subscribe at any time; the fee covers all the printing, and mailing costs that are incurred in order to get the Bulletin out. Everyone is also welcome to visit our website at irishcentersf.org to check out all our upcoming events, view pictures and other information.

Thursday, March 5 is the Grand Opening of the Restaurant for Dinner service on Thursdays. Come out and enjoy dinner on Thursday Nights. Reservations are encouraged, especially before our Monthly General Meetings.

The United Irish Societies will be hosting the annual Grand Marshal's Dinner honoring Grand Marshal John O'Flynn, and Honorary Grand Marshals, Carole Deeb, our beloved former Banquet Manager; Jack Hassett and Marge McCormick on Friday, March 6.

The St. Patrick's Day Parade is on Saturday the 14th. Starts at 11:30 at 2nd and Townsend and winds it way down Market Street to Civic Center. Be sure to cheer on Jamie Lundy and our Rosebuds on the UICC's Rose of Tralee float this year! This will be a 30 foot float, and will be our biggest presence in the parade ever. So please come down and support us! The UICC/ICCC also have a booth at the festival this year. Come by and see us, buy a "Go Green" t-shirt, spin for a prize, lot's of fun!

After the parade, be sure to come back to the Center and enjoy the Ladies Auxiliary's Annual Corned Beef and Cabbage dinner. Lots of music and dancing. Starts at 4pm, upstairs in the St. Patrick's room.

The following day, the 15th, please come out and join us and our neighbors, the Java Beach Cafe, for a fun filled, festive, fabulous block party. The whole family is welcome. Bouncy castle, music, Irish Dancers and lots of fun. Starts at 11AM. We will still be serving Sunday Brunch as usual.

There are many more events taking place this month, so see inside for details.

Make sure you stop by the Center this month - as we all know you haven't fully celebrated St. Patrick's Day until you've visited the Center!

Sincerely,
The UICC Board of Directors

St. Patrick

Born in Roman Britain in the late 4th century, St. Patrick was kidnapped at age 16 and taken to Ireland as a slave. He escaped to Gaul (France) where he became a priest and later returned to Ireland as a missionary to convert the Irish to Christianity. Establishing monasteries, churches and schools, he chose Armagh as the Irish ecclesiastical capital. To learn more about Ireland's patron saint, the library recommends the following biographies in its collection:

Saint Patrick: Apostle of Ireland by Hugh De Blacam
The Legacy of Saint Patrick: As Found in His Own Writings by Martin P. Harney, S.J.
The Life of Saint Patrick, Apostle of Ireland by William Bullen Morris
Saint Patrick: His Life and Mission by Mrs. Thomas Concannon
The Life of St. Patrick, Apostle of Ireland by William Canon Fleming
The Life and Writings of the Historical Saint Patrick by R.P.C. Hanson
St. Patrick: His Life and Work by G.A. Chamberlain, B.D.
The Living Legend of St. Patrick by Alannah Hopkin
Saint Patrick A.D. 493-1993 edited by David N Dumville
The library's copy of The Traveller's Guide to Sacred Ireland by Cary Meehan is a great resource for tracking St. Patrick's steps.

To explore St. Patrick's Day festivities, the library suggests:

The Definitive St. Patrick's Day Festivity Book by Michael James Fallon
St. Patrick's Day Parade in New York by John T. Ridge
