BOARD OF DIRECTORS' MESSAGE

Dear Members and friends;

For the thirty-sixth year, we will celebrate this grand day at our Center. For all of you who have given so much to the UICC over the years, and those of you who have recently discovered our jewel, we wish to thank you and wish you and yours a most HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY!!!

We are looking for volunteers to staff the library. The library is a grand asset and it needs to be preserved and shared. If you could give of your time, even a little, we would be able to keep it open and of service to you. Get in touch with the Center for more details.

The UICC Board would like to remind the membership that we are still extending student Scholarships each spring. Our scholarships are open to the children and grandchildren of our members, as they have been in the past.

Four scholarships will be awarded this spring, two for young people entering High School ($500.00 each) and two for young adults entering College ($1000.00 each.) A five hundred word essay is required and a number of volunteer hours must be spent at the Center. The essay's subject is: "What it means to be an Irish American." May 15th is the last day essays will be accepted. The winners will be announced at the annual General Membership meeting in May.

We all are looking forward to the "doings" this St. Patrick's day. Be sure to check this bulletin for events and dates. This time of year is most important to the Center and your continued support is needed. Come and share a dinner, a pint, or a "cuppa"!

Sincerely,

UICC Board of Directors

Terri Leonard has been in our thoughts & prayers with good news and bad. Congratulations to Terri who was honored as "Kerry Person of the Year" at the Kerry Athletic Club & Sons of Boru 49th Annual Dinner Dance on February 12 (which was declared Terri Leonard Day by Mayor Lee). 350 attended the event, including daughters, Maureen Leonard and Kathleen O'Sullivan (who traveled from Kerry) and her niece, Kathleen McKenna. Presentations were made by Nora Mullane & Mary O'Sullivan. MC Martin Falvey did an excellent job as always. Terri also recently underwent knee surgery and we wish her a speedy recovery.

Congrats are also in order to Mike & Peggy Cooney who were the guests of honor at the Columban Fathers' annual lunch and raffle on February 27.

Happy 80th Birthday to John Callan!! He celebrated with his family and was surprised by a visit of son Francis [from Australia]. And we all got a chance to meet/see Francis at the Kerry Dinner with his Dad and [brother] Brian.

SCHOLARSHIP: A HUGE thank you to the Scholarship Dinner Committee for another successful Scholarship Dinner honoring our own Derry Philpott. It was truly a wonderful event. The ICCC Scholarship committee is now busy working on the 2011 applications. Good Luck to all that applied.

BRICK CAMPAIGN: You can still be a part of this important mission by purchasing an inscribed ICCC brick, which will replace the existing bricks that surround the UICC. Proceeds will benefit the ICCC, and your participation in this campaign will allow the ICCC to renovate the Center, upgrade the Patrick J. Dowling Library, and provide Irish/Irish-American cultural and heritage programming.

LIBRARY: The ICCC Library is looking for volunteers. If you are interested in either volunteering hourly, weekly or monthly please contact Karen Kinahan at (415) 681-5586.

UP COMING EVENTS:

MARCH 4-25, 2011 THE 8TH ANNUAL CROSSROADS IRISH-AMERICAN FESTIVAL (sponsored in part by the ICCC) is bursting with new opportunities for you to discover and explore Irish-American history and culture, offering events for family & kids. Most events are free to the public. For more information: www.irishamericancrossroads.org. Be sure to attend the two events held at the UICC:

SUNDAY, MARCH 13TH @ 2PM, ST. FRANCIS ROOM - MAKING IT HOME: IRISH IMMIGRANTS OF THE 1950's.

Join us as we honor and celebrate the voices and contributions of the 1950s generation of Irish immigrants to the San Francisco Bay Area. In this event, individuals from the Crossroads Irish Oral History Archive Project of the San Francisco Bay Area will tell their stories, in their own words.

Stories from an Irish-American Youth

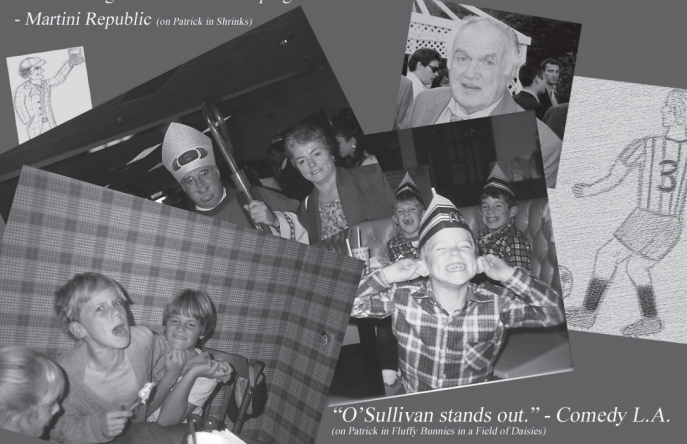

MARCH 27th •

"an act of absurd genius." - L.A. Times
(on Patrick O'Sullivan's All About Walken)

In his debut one man show, Patrick O'Sullivan gives a comedic and heartfelt reflection of his experiences growing up in the Irish immigrant culture of the San Francisco Bay Area, featuring remarkable tales of everyone from his father (former English Premier League player Paddy Sullivan) to local folk hero Johnny Foley (namesake of the downtown pub).

"O'Sullivan - in that Jim Carrey way, in alternating fits of sardonic genius and footstomping hambone."

- Martini Republic (on Patrick in Shrinks)

"O'Sullivan stands out." - Comedy L.A.

Patrick O'Sullivan is the creator of the hit stage shows All About Walken: The Impersonators of Christopher Walken and All About Jack: The Impersonators of Jack Nicholson that have toured all over the U.S. In 2011, you can see him as Jim Carrey's flashback father in the film Mr. Popper's Penguins and starring as Gary Busey in the Los Angeles production of the national stage sensation Point Break Live! He has also been seen on Comedy Central, Showtime, Fox, and CBS shows, performs stand-up comedy at the world famous Hollywood Improv and The Comedy Store, and is a writer/performer for the popular internet channel Totally Sketch. He produced a documentary on Lenny Bruce as a labor of love and the film Looking for Lenny will have its world premiere in Paris this year. This former rock vocalist, radio and roller rink disc jockey, and scoreboard operator for the S.F. Giants and 49ers is really just a kid from the wrong side of the tracks with a story to tell.
