BOARD MESSAGE

Dear Members and Friends,

Happy St. Patrick's Day to all of us! To the Saint who brought Christianity to the Emerald Isle, Happy Feast Day! Let us all be wearing the green every day this month and not only on March 17th."O Paddy, dear, and did you hear the news that's going round...." Let us remember those who gave so much for our beloved Ireland.

We are looking forward to the doings this St. Patrick's Day. Be sure to check the bulletin for events and dates. This time of year is most important to the Irish Center, and your continued support is needed. Come in and share a dinner, a pint, or a "cuppa" with your friends here at our Irish Center.

The Board of Directors would like to remind the membership that when the Irish Cultural Center of California, ICCC, was founded, the Leo Walsh Scholarship fund was given over to that organization as the conduit for the annual scholarship program. All donations to the scholarship fund should be made to the ICCC, and, all such donations are tax deductible. Thank you, ICCC. Remember, members, that both organizations, The United Irish Cultural Center and the Irish Cultural Center of California are working together for the betterment of the Irish community.

The Rose of Tralee contest is up coming. If you know of someone who might be interested in participating in the contest, please get in touch with the Center. The contest will be held the latter part of April. so time is getting short. The winner will have the honor of competing in Tralee during the summer.

Again, Happy St. Patrick's Day to all!

Sincerely,

UICC Board of Directors

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS WOULD LIKE TO OFFICIALLY REMIND ALL MEMBERS
THAT THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING AND ELECTIONS
WILL BE HELD ON MAY 24TH AT 7:30 PM.

PATRICK J. DOWLING LIBRARY NEWS

OPENING NIGHT RECEPTION

Friday, March 30, 6pm-8pm

United Irish Cultural Center

Visit with Annie Holland, Laois based artistic photographer, at the opening event for her exhibition of photographs depicting traditional Irish scenes including her photos of Virgin Mary shrines. The body of work explores Mary's role in modern Ireland as well as reflects on her historical role in Ireland.

Ms. Holland has exhibited her work internationally in Japan, Switzerland, and Uruguay as well as her native Ireland. View the wonderful photographs and mingle with friends while enjoying appetizers or drinks from the no host bar.

Music provided by the SF Conservatory of Music.

The photos will be on display in the St. Francis Room of the United Irish Cultural Center from March 30 through April 30.

The event is sponsored by the Patrick J. Dowling Library and all proceeds will go to support the activities of the library, which is largely funded by donations. Funding is needed to, not only modernize the library but preserve the collection from deterioration. The first all Irish library in the United States, it is both a valuable tool for research and a pleasant spot to visit on a foggy day.

Donations are tax deductible.

Suggested donation for the reception is $25.

For tickets, please contact Valerie McGrew at (650) 991-3129 or send your check payable to: ICCC and mail to:

MEMBERSHIP NEWS

As of January, the Rebel Cork Ladies Association, under the leadership of President Nora Mullane, has moved their meeting place to the Center after over 35 years at the Kopling Hall. The club is very pleased with the new meeting place in the Boardroom and had a most enjoyable January meeting.

The Center's dining room really rocked on a recent Friday when the Connaught Club gathered for dinner in the restaurant. The club members, along with other diners like Marianne and Diarmund Philpott who had dropped in for a quiet dinner with friends, danced to the music of the Kevin Roche band and had a great time.

On February 11, the Kerry Athletic Club & Sons of Boru held their 50th annual dinner, honoring Kerry woman of the year Celine Kennelly, who has made amazing contributions to the Irish community.

Spotlight on the Volunteers

It was an exciting evening with lots of great ideas presented including creation of Facebook page and future funding raising events. A big thanks to them for their hard work during the last year and best wishes in their future endeavors.
