BOARD MESSAGE

Dear Members,

Hopefully you've had a chance to come to the Center and see the positive changes that have taken place at the Center during our annual clean-up and renewal in August. Highlights were mentioned in the September Bulletin message, and participants have been personally thanked. Generosity is in evidence among our members as well. We were able to add accommodating items to our rest rooms for our disabled members thanks to an anonymous donor. Also, our pledge donation total is growing. Special thanks to all who have participated. Please see the article on donations elsewhere in the Bulletin.

The Board has deep gratitude for the incredible efforts of Center members who are active volunteers in all aspects of UICC activity. Whether it's helping with the building, operations, social events, in the dining room, or chairing and/or participating in committee work, we have the absolute best volunteers of any organization – ever. A wise man once said, "Each of our acts makes a statement as to our purpose." Center volunteers contribute to the purpose of our beloved UICC - stated so eloquently in our original articles of incorporation, "The purpose of the UICC is to provide members with beautiful dining and banquet facilities for social, recreational, athletic and cultural activities." The Board offers heartfelt thanks to all who contribute so mightily to the life of the UICC.

All have been made aware that the Board has (at the recommendation of the Audit Committee) retained the services of a consultant, Mr. John Buckley (the funding for whom was generously provided by the Irish Cultural Centre of California - ICCC), to examine the procedures and practices of Center operations. Mr. Buckley has spent several months looking into the status of the Center and the procedures that would make its procedures more efficient in practice and finance. On Thursday, September 13th, Mr. Buckley presented his findings and recommendations to a group of (committee) leaders and at the Center. The bad news is that the Center is in a rather serious financial situation. The good news is that Mr. Buckley feels that the situation is solvable with a bright future for the Center if we can all pull together to create and implement a strategic plan for the future. All UICC members will have an opportunity to come to a meeting to hear the results of Mr. Buckley's analysis and to participate in the details of strategic plan development and implementation. All members will receive information by the first week in November.

These are critical times at the Center in terms of the future, but, the immediate future in the month of October offers many exciting opportunities to participate in Center activities. Those activities are cited elsewhere in the Bulletin; it is important to remember that you support the Center every time you participate! I look forward to seeing each of you soon at the Center!

In Unity,

Judith Kell, President
UICC Board of Directors

Purpose ~ Respect ~ Organization ~ Unity ~ Determination

PATRICK J. DOWLING LIBRARY NEWS

AGATHA HOFF: "Judge*Hoff, Jesus Loves You, But the Rest of Us Think You're an A**Hole!"

Tales from my 20 years as a San Francisco Court Commissioner

Wednesday, October 21, 2012 at 3pm
United Irish Cultural Center

Writer Agatha Hoff will read excerpts from her latest book, "Judge*Hoff, Jesus Loves You, But the Rest of Us Think You're an A**Hole!" She chronicles her life as a San Francisco Commissioner with a series of humorous and often poignant vignettes. Commissioner Hoff vividly captures the unique atmosphere of the Hall of Justice. If you have ever worked at the Hall of Justice, contested a ticket or even like watching Judge Judy, you will enjoy her stories.

Agatha Hoff started in poverty law where clients often abandoned her for a "real lawyer" (meaning someone they paid). When she became a real lawyer, her personal injury clients termed her practice "the armpit of the law". When she was appointed a court commissioner, her favorite moniker was uttered by an angry litigant in traffic court, calling her a "fascist terrorist cross-dressed in the cloak of justice". When at last a British tourist called her "Your Worship," Agatha thought she'd retire before it went to her head. She celebrated her retirement by going skydiving before embarking on a new career as an author. In her first novel, "Burning Horses, a Hungarian Life Turned Upside Down", she wades boldly into an ocean of memory and storytelling about World War II, the Holocaust and its impact on the life of a Catholic of Jewish ancestry. The author describes the violent destruction of a city, a country, a culture and a great love in this story of one courageous woman's life lived amid agonizing change.

Defending Western United States Champions (2010 & 2011)

Elizabeth Kiernan recently sent us a note telling us of the passing of her husband, Noel Eugene Kiernan, age 54, of Fernandina Beach on Thursday, August 9 2012 and shared his obituary which she wrote for the local paper: "Noel, born in County Cavan, was one of 11 children born to Eugene and Mary Lee Kiernan. In 1978, he moved to San Francisco where he first worked as a mover and later worked in the real estate field. In 1992, Noel and Elizabeth met in an Irish pub (where else) on Haight Street, fell in love, & were married in 1994 at St. John's Presbyterian Church in SF. Before they started a family, they really wanted to travel as they loved to try new foods, experience new cultures and meet new people. They traveled to France, Spain, Greece, Italy and all over Ireland as well as all over the US from Hawaii to New York. Later they welcomed two children Madison Walker Kiernan & Liam Russell Kiernan. In 2004, the Kiernan family moved to Kenmare, County Kerry where they made wonderful friends and lived a dream that Noel and Elizabeth shared. They enjoyed living closer to Noel's family so they could visit with his mother, siblings, and many cousins more often. In 2009, they moved to Fernandina Beach to make it their new home as Noel always loved being close to the sea. Noel loved the SF 49ers football, Irish/Gaelic football, traveling the world, Irish music, long walks on the beach and a good pint of Smithwicks in a local pub. We will never forget his wonderful humor, sweet Irish accent and the twinkle in eye."

Spotlight on the Volunteers

The UICC and Irish Community lost a great Lady and Volunteer in September, Anne Quilter. Anne lent her tireless efforts to Ladies Auxiliary and Silver Gaels and many other volunteer efforts within UICC. She was volunteering to her last days, her name was in September Bulletin for Silver Gaels Thunder Valley day trip. She was also active in the broader Irish community including supporting the Columban Fathers & membership in the Rebel Cork Ladies. RIP
