BOARD MESSAGE

Dear Members,

May is a wonderful month. The prospect of good weather is in the air, summer is around the corner, and Mother's Day, Father's Day, and Graduations are awaiting celebration! With Mother's Day and Father's day occurring in succession, I remember asking my mother, "When is Children's Day?" Her response was, "Everyday is Children's Day!" And, in that spirit, the children of this generation and the next can begin to be sure that our beloved Irish Cultural Center will be here to carry on its mission of Irish culture thanks to the incredible response that we have received for active membership (with accompanying dues payment). By now, you have all received your particular membership information. Welcome to all members old and new. We have a wonderful set of activities planned at the Center; your Board is very excited about the new resources available to the Center. Let's keep the ball rolling. Please send in your membership dues (and current information regarding you and your family) soon if you have not already done so.

Every day brings a new feeling with it in regard to the current renewal of our Center. I had the pleasure of introducing Mary Robinson (former President of Ireland) who was signing her new book, Everybody Matters: My Life Giving Voice, at the Book Passages Bookstore. Since President Robinson was a bit delayed in her arrival, I was asked to fill in for the audience of 300 with some information about the UICC. After 25 minutes of Center information (accompanied by some stories and jokes – one participant asked if I could repeat one of Tom Clune's jokes) I can honestly say that all seem to be better informed about our Center's history and activities. Many approached me afterward with more focused questions and Mary Robinson herself attested to the fact that she remembered being at the UICC in the past. What a wonderful opportunity to meet such an incredible woman passionate about the inequality and poverty throughout the world!

The month of May is said to bring flowers, but, in addition to the flowers, we are pleased to have an emphasis on poetry. We are looking forward to a Poetry Workshop presented by Sean Casey, noted poet and author. There will also be a poetry reading and open microphone session facilitated by Kathy Gilbert at which Sean will read selected poems from his recently-released book, Earthrise.

The Rose of Tralee dinner was celebrated at the Center despite the challenges of timing put upon the committee. Next year, the Rose Dinner and Celebration will occur in January. Special thanks to Jack Curtin who has presented the Center with an incredible set of Rose of Tralee Programs dating from the origin of the celebration at the Center. A couple of events occurring early in June are worth noting. An incredible dinner/dance will occur June 1st with a first-rate impersonator whom many of us have seen before. Manny's show is a standout! Another event for early ticket purchase is the Mad Hatter Tea Party. This delightful afternoon will be a cherished memory for many. I have my tickets for both already!

All are invited to come to the May General Membership Meeting during which the past year will be reviewed and a critical strategic plan for Center sustainability and growth will be presented. (As always, a wonderful "Thursday Night Dinner" will precede the meeting.) Your Board is privileged to serve the Center and is making great strides to assure that it lives on and thrives for generations to come.

SILVER GAELS

Friday May 17 will be our next date for our Silver Gaels luncheon and card playing at 12:30 pm. All are welcome.

Our 2013 San Francisco Rose Fiona Tolley

Fiona is 19 and a student at San Francisco State University where she is studying Apparel design and Merchandising and aspires to work in London fashion industry. She is the first in her family to be born here in the United States. Fiona grew up in Los Gatos, California and graduated from Los Gatos High School. In high school she was President of the Choir and participated in the musicals. Fiona took fashion for two years and organized a fashion show which she debuted and modeled her own line. She was the student representative on the board for her local community theater and volunteered there.

Fiona has been Irish Dancing with The Kennelly School: now Whelan - Kennelly Academy, since she was four. She is an active competitor and enjoys doing many dance performances such as the South End Rowing Club, the UICC, The Mark Hopkins Hotel and with the Chieftains. Fiona's Mother Ursula is from Dublin and she enjoys visiting her family there yearly.

We wish Fiona all the best in Ireland and we know she will do us proud.

Our Rose and her mother Ursula Tolley

The United Irish Cultural Center would like to thank the following generous sponsors of our 2013 Rose of Tralee Dinner & Selection!

MEMBERSHIP NEWS

It's been great reading the memories/comments from those that have been sending in their membership dues:

Patsy Brichta wrote in saying she fondly remembers playing guitar at UICC with many groups, including Martin Lalor and Stealaway (with Margaret Dillon). Thank you all for many, many memorable evenings. Continued success...

Thank you for all your efforts to keep the UICC vital.

We support your efforts to collect dues to continue operations, maintenance and facility improvements. We are grateful for the years of memories -- UICC has been a centerpiece of our lives and we are proud to be members.

Spotlight on the Volunteers

A big thanks to two published poets & members of the UICC who are offering new programming at the Center-Kathy Gilbert who is facilitating the May open mic poetry reading and Sean Casey who is conducting a series of 8 poetry workshops starting in May. Please consider sharing your talents with other members of the UICC by organizing a similar program.

MEMBER UPDATES

Please tell us about your vacation adventures, special events or what you are thinking about.

PATRICK J. DOWLING LIBRARY NEWS

Poetry Reading & Open Mic – Sunday, May 19, 2013 at 3:00pm, UICC Facilitated by Poet Kathy Gilbert

You are invited to come and hear poet Sean Casey read selected poems from his newly released book, Earthrise. Sean has been writing poetry for the last forty years and is the author of two previously released books, For My Friends – Alone and Earthbound. Sean's reading will be followed by an open mic session – so bring your friends and your poetry or short reading. Performers and non-performers are welcome for an afternoon of good poetry, stories and camaraderie at the United Irish Cultural Center. Sean's book, Earthrise, will be available for purchase at the event, and he will be signing copies after the readings.

NOTE: The poetry reading will be preceded by the first workshop of a series of poetry workshops that Sean is leading. These are separate events but you might be interested in attending both. See the notice elsewhere in the bulletin.

Mary Robinson's Everybody Matters: My Life Giving Voice

Former President of Ireland, Mary Robinson has very generously donated a signed copy of her latest book, Everybody Matters: My Life Giving Voice, to the library. Come and have a look at this fascinating book – it is currently part of this month's special exhibit.

POETRY WORKSHOP SERIES

The United Irish Cultural Center is pleased to announce that beginning the 19th of May, a workshop on poetry writing will be offered to all who have a desire to expand their poetic writing skills. This will be a supportive environment where participants can explore their inner potential for poetic expression through the use of a number of exercises that are both fun and challenging. This workshop will be facilitated by Sean Casey, MS - a long time member of UICC, who has helped many people discover their poetic potential both here in the US and abroad. He has written poetry for forty years, is the author of three books of poetry, and is widely traveled. He believes that writing poetry is a wonderful way of expressing the beauty in our lives, an outlet for our frustrations and a voice for our hearts.

This workshop will meet over eight weeks and is open to all who wish to attend for a moderate amount to cover use of the room and beverage service and perhaps a small donation to the Center. This amount will be determined at the first meeting of the series.

LOCATION: United Irish Cultural Center

DATE & TIME: The first & third Sunday of the month at 1:00 pm —starting May 19
