BOARD MESSAGE

Dear Members,

What a pleasure it is to welcome you to March, the month of Irish "High Season" at your United Irish Cultural Center. Many have noticed the absolute beauty of the renewed front entrance to the Center and, once again, we have our wonderful building committee (Martin Falvey, Gerry Cassidy) and the Irish Pipers to thank for the exceptional work to beautify the entrance to our Center. Special thanks to Liam Riedy of Reidy Painting for the exceptional work involved in painting the entrance and stairway.

The Rose of Tralee dinner and dance on February 7th was a huge success. Marisa Conroy is our lovely 2015 "Rose". All three judges commented on the high caliber of all of the entrants in the Rose competition. Michael Finney (KGO television) was the essence of Irish charm and wit as he hosted the celebration in fine style. Kudo's to 2014 Rose, Rosie Keehan, for putting together an unforgettable evening for all who attended.

February 27th was an incredible evening opening up "High Season" with the United Irish Society's Grand Marshal Dinner. Parade Grand Marshal, Bill Duggan, was honored and a record number of attendees were present at the very special occasion.

On March 14th your Irish Center will be represented in the St. Patrick's Day Parade with a motorized cable car. Anyone with an urge to join us is welcome to call the Center and sign up for a memorable ride! There will be a block party on 45th Avenue on March 15th and all are invited to join in this party sponsored by the UICC, the United Irish Societies and Java Beach Restaurant. The UICC restaurant and bar will be open on Tuesday, March 17th for your traditional St. Patrick's Day celebration. All are reminded of the many March celebratory events sponsored by the United Irish Societies and Irish Crossroads! A listing can be found elsewhere in the Bulletin.

Your Board of Directors submitted an application for grant funds for the Irish government's Emigrant Support Programme (E.S.P.). Since 2004 the E.S.P. has assisted over 400 organizations in twenty-six countries. Our own GAA was able to develop fields at Treasure Island, and the Irish Immigration and Pastoral Center has also received E.S.P. funds. We are hopeful that the UICC, being the Center of all things Irish in the Bay Area, will be funded to further serve our Irish community. The UICC grant request would help to cover some of the changes that we would all like to see in our forty-year-old Center. The painting of the front of the building and an upgrade to the St. Patrick's Room are being requested through the grant. The grant requires matching funds and we are currently working to make that a reality!

I plan on seeing all of you at the WOMEN OF IRELAND event on Sunday, March 22nd. Let's meet there for an incredible evening of Irish music, song and dance. Tickets available at the Center or online.

Lastly, RENEW YOUR UICC MEMBERSHIP NOW if you haven't done so already! Your UICC dues enable us to maintain our forty-year-old wonderful Center for your use and enjoyment.

With Irish blessings and in Unity,

Judith Kell, President
UICC Board of Directors

Condolences to Valerie McGrew on the passing of her husband, Garry McGrew.

Congratulations to Roger and Erin Moore who were married on January 24, 2015 at St. Paul's Church. Erin is the granddaughter of Frank and Mary O'Rourke and the daughter of Pat and Maureen Gardner. Roger is the son of Peter and Josephine Moore. They will honeymoon in Ireland, Spain and France. We wish them a lifetime of happiness!

'Highlight on Volunteers' emphasized individual and group contributions of many over the years but have neglected to highlight the contributions of the most visible group of volunteers – our Board of Directors. On behalf of the members, thank you, Board, for taking on the time consuming and (sometimes) thankless job of managing the UICC.

Helen O'Brien, (and her sisters) daughters of Tom McGarvey and the late Nancy McGarvey, asked if there were folks out there who would be interested in getting a Pinochle game together. Their Dad played for years with several friends. Tom and Nancy were Charter Members and volunteered with the 32/50 and the Leo Walsh Scholarship Program for years. # PATRICK J. DOWLING LIBRARY NEWS

TREASURES OF THE PATRICK J. DOWLING LIBRARY

Teampall Ban

Aspects of the Famine in North Kerry

By John D. Pierse

Donated by Minister of State for the Diaspora Jimmy Deenihan

When the Irish Diaspora Minister Jimmy Deenihan was visiting the UICC this February, he had an opportunity to visit the library and donated an autographed copy of Teampall Ban to the library collection. Teampall Ban is the name of the graveyard outside of Listowel and symbolizes the Famine to the people of Listowel and North Kerry. The book is an overview of the impact of the Famine on this area. As Mr. Pierse says in his Preface, "...It is important that we remember the suffering of those who died and give credit to those who tried to save the people"

An Coinneal

Volume 27- 2014

Donated by Sean Dunne

An Coinneal is a periodical from Kilgeever, parish of Louisburgh, County Mayo. In publication since 1959, it is the oldest parish magazine in Ireland. Over the years, Mr. Dunne has been kind enough to donate several volumes of the periodical

Patricia Ward D'Arcy Retires as Library Volunteer

Pat is retiring as a library volunteer after working on and off at the library for many years. She first joined the library after her retirement from the public school library system - working with Patrick Dowling when the Patrick J. Dowling Library was new. We are really going to miss her-not only she is a diligent worker but she is also a great friend.

Priest's Leap

Donated by Peter O'Driscoll

Located on the Baera Peninsula overlooking Bantry Bay, the Priest's Leap stone memorializes the spot, where according to legend, in 1612 a priest pursued by soldiers jumped from this spot and miraculously landed in Bantry. Peter O'Driscoll has donated a handwritten copy of the poem to the library that relates this story. The following is his history of the poem. "Mr. Edward O'Connor was the school master at the national School of Dromore in the parish of Cahereigh from the 1930s to his retirement in December 1961. One of the demands for all his students was that each one would study and know the poem titled Priest's Leap. My brother (Jeremiah) Jerry Thaddeus O'Driscoll was a student of his until he reached 14 years in early 1949. I took my first trip home to Aughaville, parish of Caheragh, in August 1998 after 35 years in America. While searching through the old home I found the poem the Priest's Leap which my brother Jerry had written in ink writing pen in lined paper while a student of Mr. O'Connor at Dromore school sometime during the 1940s. Jerry was 7 years older than I, he was born in January 1935, died in February 1991 and is buried in Robin Hood Cemetery in Birmingham, England. I wish to share this interesting history of the Priest Leap with the Irish community in San Francisco." —Peter O'Driscoll

"Long years have passed away since then in sun, wind and rain
But still of that terrific leap
the wondrous marks remain
On the high cliff from which he sprang now deemed a sacred Place?
The prints left by the horse hoofs are plain for all to see"

(Excerpt from the Priest's Leap)
