BOARD MESSAGE

...from the Executive Director

I would like to introduce to you the newest member of our staff, Marcus Toledo. Marcus was hired three weeks ago for the position of Marketing/Social Media Associate Manager. Marcus has been tasked with the goals of continual highlighting of the Center and its activities with a constant presence on all social media platforms-The Center Website; Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and Next Door. He will be creating marketing material to highlight what the Center can offer regarding usage of the food and beverage availability and to reach out to professional organizations to utilize the facility. Events that are occurring at the Center will be transmitted through press releases to appropriate contacts within the City and Bay area.

Marcus grew up in the Sunset District and lives a few short blocks from the Irish Center. He graduated from San Francisco State University with a Bachelor's degree in Journalism. He also studied graphic and web design at CCSF.

Prior to coming to the Center, Marcus was the sports information director for City College of San Francisco Athletics Department from 2012 to 2018. He developed the public relations and communications program for the department and its 15 intercollegiate teams, established CCSF Athletics' social media presence and eventually led it to become one of the most visible brands amongst all California junior college athletic programs, managed the launch of the CCSF Athletics website, project managed and designed all marketing materials, and worked with various departments including the CCSF Chancellor's Office to execute events and fundraisers. He also worked in the tech industry as a public relations specialist and was a journalist who covered professional sports and city government. Welcome Marcus!

Two upcoming events in June:

Sunday, June 24th — 7th Annual Mad Hatter Tea Party, 1 p.m. in the St. Patrick's Ballroom. Tickets are $30 for Adults and $15 for Children 12 and Under. Wear your "Mad Hat" and join the party that helps to support the Center's Library. Finger Sandwiches, Sweet and Savory offerings, Scones and Clotted Cream are just a few of the delightful afternoon offerings. Tickets can be purchased online on the Center's website.

Friday, June 29th — "Panti Bliss" "Live in San Francisco" Concert, 9 p.m. in the St. Patrick's Ballroom. Following Gay Pride Week, the performance features the journey of a small-town boy in Ireland to become the towering plastique woman in her gender-discombobulating, stiletto-shaped, lash flapping world. Tickets are $30 per person and can be purchased online on the Center Web site. Doors open up at 8:00 p.m. and pre-dinner reservations in the downstairs dining are strongly recommended. Supported by the Irish Consulate in San Francisco, this is an event you do not want to miss.

Executive Director

John Doyle-Live in Concert June 2nd, 2018

In 1994 John Doyle brought his brilliant and innovative guitar stylings to the nascent Irish super-group Solas, which soon took the folk and Celtic music worlds by storm. As part of that critically acclaimed group, he received three NAIRD awards and a Grammy nomination, performed internationally to sold out audiences, and appeared on The Today Show, Mountain Stage, and A Prairie Home Companion.

In the years since going out on his own, John has recorded two solo albums, including Wayward Son, which The Irish Edition hailed as "a contender for Album of the Year"; and has become a highly sought-after accompanist and session player for the likes of Joan Baez, Eileen Ivers, Tim O'Brien, Linda Thompson, Seamus Egan, Alison Brown and Kate Rusby; and has developed compelling duo performances, first with fiddler Liz Carroll and more recently with Solas' co-founding vocalist Karan Casey.

John has appeared on soundtracks for feature films The Brothers McMullan and Soldier, as well as PBS's Out of Ireland. He composed the music for the film Uncle Robert's Footsteps and the play Down the Flats. Impossibly in demand in the studio and on the road, immensely talented and blessed with an acute ear, a wicked sense of rhythm and seemingly endless streams of magic in his playing, composing, performing and producing, John is solidly establishing himself as one of the most versatile, creative and prolific voices in folk and traditional Irish music.

REMEMBRANCE
FOR KATE KENNEDY,
1827-1890,
CHAMPION FOR WOMEN'S AND WORKERS' RIGHTS

The UICC is sponsoring a Remembrance for Kate Kennedy, San Francisco pioneer born in County Meath, who during her 30 year career in San Francisco schools, made significant gains for women's and workers' rights. She was also the first woman to run for state office in California.

Born in 1827, Kennedy lived through the famine, and, though those years were not as hard on her family as they were on others, the famine gave her a vivid sense of the injustice that can exist in the world, and nurtured her determination to work against it.

In 1867, she was promoted to principal of a large school, but was paid 70% of what a male principal would have earned. She organized a campaign against this, and in 1874, the California legislature passed a law saying that men and women in comparable positions in California public schools had to receive the same pay.

It was probably her political activism that led the Board of Education, in 1887, to demote her to a smaller school at a smaller salary. She refused the transfer, and sued the Board. In 1890, the California Supreme Court decided in her favor, ruling that an educator could not be demoted or fired except for misconduct or incompetency.

The Remembrance is being organized by Irish Marvels, a historical and cultural group that meets at the UICC. Among the groups joining the UICC as sponsors are Teamsters Joint Council No. 7, the California Retired Teachers Association Division 36, United Educators of San Francisco Retired Division, Carpenters Local Union 22, Duggan's Serra Mortuary and the United Irish Societies.

Joanne Hayes-White, Chief of the San Francisco Fire Department, will be the main speaker. The San Francisco Irish Pipers Band and the Pearse and Connolly Fife and Drum Band will lead the procession to her grave.

The Remembrance will happen Sunday, June 3, 1:30 at her grave in the East Gardens at Cypress Lawn Cemetery in Colma.

All are welcome.

The IIPC is delighted to offer a monthly coffee morning get-together. The coffee morning is designed to be an informal gathering of friends, old and new. Come along to play cards or BINGO, read the Irish newspapers or just have a chat.

Every month, we will have a different range of activities, including cards, bingo and our most popular addition - an inter-county table quiz!

This is a relaxed and enjoyable social opportunity to get out of the house for a few hours and spend it in the company of friends.
