BOARD MESSAGE

As I write my final letter for the bulletin, I hummed a little ditty, "Thanks for the Memory" by Bob Hope. While I am moving on from the role of President, I will not be going too far. After an incredibly challenging year for everyone-I am elated that our Center is in great hands with a strong, solid, and dedicated board. I am very confident as I pass on the baton as President that the Center will continue to rise to meet all the challenges that it has faced recently.

I am honored to join the list of Presidents that have served the UICC during the last 45 years:

Liam Spiers   Peggy Mc Donald   Mike Moriarty
Pat Brosnan   Maryjane Knoll   Joan McClain
Jack Scannell Kay Gulbengay   Danny Boyle   Bob Twomey
Tim Murphy   Mary Dunleavy Cassidy   Karen Kinahan
Terry Graham   Brendan Walsh   Joe O'Leary
Frank Leonard   Erris Cafferky   John Gallagher
Mike Cooney   Diarmuid Philpott   Judith Kell
Dan Kerr   David Philpott   Michael Barnacle

I was first introduced to the United Irish Cultural Center board by my Dad, Jerry Cassidy. He and many others have spent years dedicating their free time to the Center to ensure it remains an important bastion for the Irish American community on the west side of the city.

Between 2006-2010, I worked with Karen Kinahan, John Ring, Theresa Flynn-Houghton, Karen McDonald, Margaret McAuliffe and many others. My kids were 3 and 6 years old and watched Dean "at the bar" and were fed Pasquales pizza and pumped up with Shirley Temples. Fast forward to February 2016, and I found myself back on the UICC board again. I have spent 10 out of the last 14 years on the board, and now my daughter is graduating from high school and I have a son in college.

I love the Center and I walk away proud of the good work that we have achieved in the recent past. Too many times past UICC Presidents have exited the role and for various reasons did not stay around to mentor the incoming President or new board members. I don't want to walk away and never look back - that would make me very sad. It has been an incredible labor of love and I will continue to support the UICC in every way I can.

Our board has done an amazing job in surviving all of the challenges we have faced in the last two years. While the Covid-19 pandemic has claimed many legacy hospitality institutions and event spaces across the city-the Irish Center has survived. That in itself is a phenomenal achievement and we have also recruited more new members from the community than ever before who believe in our mission for the Irish Center.

Through our fundraising efforts spearheaded by Tom McKeon and John Ring, our Wawona Gates effort led by Mark and Molly Burke and Josephine and the hundreds of volunteers, our small ESP grant from the Irish Government and our membership dues, I am happy to say that the Center will end 2020 in a better financial position than when the year began. A big thank you to ALL. It is not too late for you to get in that last minute year end donation. Please check out our website www.IrishCenterSF.org

As a member of the vibrant Irish American community that loves the Center it is up to all of us to support the Center. During December, come out to see our New Outdoor Tent for outdoor dining, we will host our socially distanced Tree Lighting ceremony. Live Irish music returns each Saturday and Sunday throughout the month. Our Christmas Boutique retail extravaganza takes place on December 5th and 12th, featuring lots of local vendors. In addition, Michael Dillon and his Drama School "Bosca Beagá" in collaboration with the UICC and the Cooley-Keegan Comhaltas branch is sponsoring a truly wonderful virtual Christmas concert called "Christmas Card from San Francisco" with live entertainment from local groups and entertainers across the world. Check our website for details about our St. Stephen's day (Dec 26th) and New Year's Eve (Dec 31st) celebrations.

Be a part of the Center as we continue this journey together where we will showcase the history of the Irish in SF, the culture of Ireland past and present and provide a space for the community.

And as Bob Hope sang, "Awfully glad I met you. Cheerio and toodle-oo. Thank you. Thank you so much."

Anne Cassidy Carew, President of the UICC

Are You Thinking About Refinancing Your Current Mortgage? Are You a First-Time Homebuyer?

It's a great time to discuss money saving opportunities with a refinance, such as lowering your monthly payment, consolidating debt or taking cash out. With today's low interest rates, along with Commerce Home Mortgage's flexible loan options, it's also a great time to purchase a home and start reaping the benefits that come with homeownership.

PATRICK J. DOWLING LIBRARY

Greetings from the Library of Organization & Outreach

Through the impetus of the grants we've applied for, we've been extending the cataloguing and indexing of the many periodicals and memorabilia that we hold to make it more accessible on site and digitally. If you're holding ephemera, memorabilia, journals, or organizational records related to our Irish and Irish-American community here in San Francisco and the Bay Area, the library would be honoured to be the recipient of your items. Things that are often thought of by families as "what do we do with this stuff?" are great value to scholars of all ages, genealogists, historians, and those who will interpret our present as their past.

Calling all Bibliophiles!

Book Sale returns! Book Sale returns! Look for the cart outside the Library's door on 45th & Wawona on Thursdays and Fridays 2 - 4 pm, Saturdays 1-3 pm, and up at Wawona Gates on Sundays, 1-3 pm volunteer scheduling and weather permitting. We may not be able to have you inside yet, but treasures abound on the cart to give or keep, as part of an at home adventure. Antique, contemporary, Gaelic, rare, vintage fiction and non-fiction titles are available. Deselected from or duplicated in our collection, sales of these titles support the Library's on-going modernization, preservation and programming efforts, allowing us to share this unique collection with our community.

About the Patrick J. Dowling Library

The Patrick J. Dowling Library, located at the United Irish Cultural Center in San Francisco, was the first all Irish library in the United States. Our special collection contains more than 5,000 titles on a number of subjects regarding Ireland and Irish America as well as newspapers, journals, magazines, books in the Irish language, books for children (in Irish and English), genealogy resources, sheet music, and multimedia in addition to the amazing memorabilia. Some of the books are unique and true treasures of great value to people researching Irish history, genealogy and culture.

ST. PATRICK'S APPEAL

St. Patrick's Appeal 2020

As we have reported in our recent communications, we have fully complied with "Shelter In Place" orders issued the week of March 15 by shutting down our facility and it will remain closed for the duration of this COVID-19 health crisis. As such, we have had to cancel all events and meetings and we are anxiously awaiting news about the summer months.

Please help us weather this storm and keep the momentum we built last year by making a donation to our St. Patrick's Appeal. The campaign goal is $150,000 and we are well underway.

Visit irishcentersf.org/appeal to view our St. Patrick's Appeal 2020 video and to see the fundraising stories from Board Members and Appeal supporters alike.

We are deeply grateful to our donors, volunteers, and community partners – you make our work possible.
