BOARD MESSAGE

2021 What a Year.....Rescue, Recovery and Rebuild!

Liam Reidy

This time last year we faced an uncertain future as the Irish Center was temporarily closed in the run up to Christmas and well into the New Year due to the Shelter in Place mandated by the local Public Health Dept.

We had survived very challenging times all through 2020 and for the full year before that in 2019. During 2019 the Center was only opened for community based events, and we relied on the Board, and many volunteers to host member activities that have been part of the community calendar for decades. We were essentially in rescue mode to keep the doors of the center open and keep the bills paid. We managed to do that throughout 2019 as we steadied the ship, and I think that stood to us in 2020 when we faced even greater challenges with the outbreak of Covid-19. The rescue effort at the Center continued all through 2020, and into the early part of 2021.

By the spring of 2021 like most cultural nonprofit institutions across the country, we entered into recovery mode as lockdown restrictions were lifted and a sense of normalcy returned to the community. The doors to the Center were opened again to our members to reactivate the building. While we were shut down, we used the time wisely to examine our current facility and started to think about the future of the organization and the structure itself. After a few planning meetings it didn't take long for consensus between the Board and a group of dedicated members in the community that an entirely new building may be the way forward, to satisfy the needs of our expanding membership and the state of the physical structure itself.

The idea of a rebuild and the construction of a new building to reinvigorate the United Irish Cultural Center was presented to the membership at a public meeting on May 7th. There was broad support for the ambitious redevelopment project presented to the community by the architects Studio BANAA, and the Building group, spearheaded by Redmond Lyons and Leo Cassidy. All summer long the building plans were redrawn to accommodate all that the community wanted in the new building.

The landmark destination building at 45th and Wawona when completed will be a beacon for the Irish American community to be extremely proud of and a legacy gift passed on from this generation to the next. I recently read all the minutes of the meetings for the original UICC Building before and after it was constructed and the same sentiment can be heard from those pages, as I am writing now. Won't you join us now and be part of this ambitious redevelopment project and invest in the future of our community. It is going to take participation of the entire village to realize this new endeavor. Won't you help us get there? Reach out and ask how you can help?

Membership Drive —The board has worked tirelessly on building relationships with the community by reconnecting hundreds of Irish and Irish Americans to what will be our future home for many decades to come. Our membership roll has almost doubled in two years from 750 in 2019 to 1400 this year. There are many more potential members out there and I encourage you to join us for the next chapter in the history of the UICC. Give the gift of membership this Christmas to a family member or loved one.

Annual Appeal Letter — Friends and members of the Center will receive an Annual Appeal letter in early December encouraging a year-end gift towards the ongoing Operations Budget. We had a terrific year of cultural programming activities in 2021. For our first ever Irish Summer camp we had 40 local elementary school children participate in a fun filled camp, which culminated in an amazing concert in the St. Patricks room last June. We increased the number of Irish Dance schools teaching class at the Center to five schools. Soon we will offer the younger members of our community the opportunity to learn Irish music and participate in Irish singing lessons. That is expected to kick off in January.

UICC Endowment Established — The Board has authorized the establishment of an Endowment Fund with $100,000 of funding from excess operating funds. A committee is working diligently to get the fund opened and funded before year end and to hire a top notch investment advisor. This is another step in the right direction for the future sustainability of the whole organization as we set aside funds for a rainy day and to support additional cultural programming endeavors.

Cork Club Dinner Honoree — North Cork native, Tim Murphy (originally from Dromtariffe) former Past President of the UICC (1978-79), is being honored as the 2021 Corkman of the Year on Saturday December 11th. Tim celebrates 60 Years as a member of the Rebel Cork Benevolent Association, a fraternal organization established here in the city in 1883. It is great to have the Rebel Cork Dinner return after a hiatus last year due to the lockdown.

Library and Scholarship Raffle — Community members were mailed tickets for the annual raffle fundraiser to support the Leo T. Walsh Educational scholarship fund and the Patrick J. Dowling Library. Please mail your tickets back to the UICC back before December 16th when the draw takes place live online during the Biscuits and Books Library Show.

Save the Date — An Irish Christmas Show (As seen on PBS!) returns to the Center on Saturday December 4th for a 2pm Matinee Show. Always a great show for families and kids in the run up to Christmas. The Young Dubliners play Saturday December 4th indoors starting at 7pm. Looking forward to January 2022, the "Keepers of the Steps" Irish Dance Exhibition opens Thursday, January 13th and runs through January 31st. The John and Maureen Kennelly Memorial Feis takes place on January 14 thru the 16th. We host Phil Coulter in concert on Saturday, February 5th, while Eileen Ivers is the highlight of the St. Patrick's Weekend musical offerings with her concert slated for Friday, March 11th. Tickets for all events are online at www.IrishCenterSF.org

The UICC rescue was a success, the recovery is nearly complete, and the rebuild is underway for 2022.

Happy Christmas to all our friends, supporters, and members. Stay safe!

IRISH CENTER
2025 PROJECT
S A N F R A N C I S C O

LAUNCH PARTY QUOTES BY MAYOR BREED AND WILLIE BROWN

London Breed, 45th Mayor of San Francisco

- “So great to be here at the Center. One thing I hope for with new building is air conditioning! So, we want to make sure we can party till the end of the night.”
- “I support this project. I embrace this project. As Mayor, I am going to do everything I can to support ways in which we can contribute to make this project a reality.”
- “I was honored with becoming the Saint Patrick’s Parade Grand Marshall in 2019. I remember talking about the rich history of the Irish Community of San Francisco and it has everything to do with the Center we are in now! We must make sure we preserve this rich history.”
- “I want to see the legacy of the Irish Community of San Francisco carry on for generations to come.”
- “This institution is too important. I am excited to see the possibilities with these amazing rooms and great activities.”
- “I would like to still be Mayor when we open up this place!”

Willie Brown, 41st Mayor of San Francisco

- “It’s been a long time since I have had the opportunity to speak at the Irish Culture Center. For years, when I served as your Mayor, one of my greatest opportunities was to come to the Irish Center. You are so much an intimate and integral part of SF and I say that on behalf of a person who was Mayor.”
- “When in 1975, you first presented the United Irish Center to San Francisco, each of us (formers Mayors of SF) and in our capacity who believe in this City, knew very well that this City was made up of somebody from everywhere in the world but never had a better support group than those who came here from Ireland.”
- “The kind of contributions you have made to education, financial institutions and the religious communities of San Francisco knows no bounds.”
- “It is highly appropriate that when this center and in its 1974 design disappears and the 21st NEW Center comes of age as displayed by your new leadership it will be the kind of contribution that San Francisco will be accustomed to coming from the Irish Community.”
- “Mayor Breed is right! WE ALL must participate. Build your dream and it’s our dream!”

ALL-STAR GAZING - 50 YEARS OF THE GAA ALL-STARS

by Liam Reidy

Many of our United Irish Cultural Center community members will remember fondly that the very first GAA All-Star tours from Ireland in the early 1970's were here to San Francisco. Many of the great hurlers and footballers and All-Ireland winning teams from the era played at Balboa Stadium and stayed in homes all across the city. All the team members were hosted by local families. The tours were arranged locally by the United Irish Societies and the St. Patricks Fathers. Now a landmark publication chronicles the history of the All-Stars over the past half century.

All-Star Gazing marks the 50th anniversary of the Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA) All-Stars in 2021. It tells the story of the scheme from its start in 1971 right through to the present day. With contributions from 145 All-Stars, hurlers and footballers from across the five decades, it chronicles the events, the stories and the statistics relating to Irelands longest running sports award scheme.

This commemorative book has been written by Moira and Eileen Dunne, daughters of Mick Dunne, one of the four journalists who started the scheme, along with Paddy Downey, John D. Hickey and Pádraig Puirseál, this official GAA publication includes a foreword by GAA president Larry Mac Carthy.

Using their father's records as a starting point, the sisters met over 100 All-Stars and other stakeholders, who shared their memories of All-Star banquets, trips and what an All-Star means to players, families and communities.

The book includes the Football and Hurling All-Star teams from 1971 to 2020, and for the first time, a complete list of all players nominated over the past 50 years.

Available online at www.allstargazing.com

It is an excellent Christmas present for anyone with an interest in the GAA.

WELCOME TO THE READING ROOM

We are excited to feature The Country Girls by Edna O'Brien for our joint November/December Reading Room.

Edna O'Brien's first novel The Country Girls and its sequels The Lonely Girl and Girls in their Married Bliss changed the temperature of Irish literature in the 1960s. The characters of Kate Brady and her friend Baba Brennan have inspired generation after generation of readers and writers. The passion, artistry, and courage of Edna O'Brien's vision in these novels - tender portraits of innocence and youth, love and passion, dreams and reality - resonate into the twenty-first century.

Edna O'Brien brought honest passion to Ireland at a time of social and economic repression, and blazed a trail for future writers. The Sally Rooney of her time.
