BOARD MESSAGE

FROM YOUTHFUL PASSION TO SEASONED LEADERSHIP: SHAPING THE FUTURE OF OUR CENTER

Liam Reidy

As I observe the bustling activity at the Center throughout November - filled with celebrations, diverse classes, and engaging events - it strikes me how rich our offerings have become. Amidst all this, what truly ignites my enthusiasm are the programs involving children. We now host STEM classes after school three times a week, provide education in Irish music and dance, and have introduced a Kids' Reading Hour at the Library, drawing a thriving crowd each week. Our annual summer camp welcomed 75 kids last June, and throughout the year, we've showcased numerous Irish dancers from the community as part of our cultural programming.

A Vibrant Hub for Kids — Without a doubt, the Center has blossomed into a vibrant hub catering to the younger generation - an incredible transformation considering previous perceptions of limited offerings for children here. Among our middle-aged community members, many fondly reminisce about days spent racing around the center as children, while their parents dined in the adjoining dining room. Though those cherished moments remain as memories for the time being, we eagerly anticipate a future where we can once again welcome entire families within a few years, following the Center's reconstruction. Investing in and embracing children within the Irish Center is critical; they embody our future stewards, board members, musicians, dancers, and supporters. Their presence today ensures the enduring vibrancy of our legacy tomorrow.

Today's Juveniles to Tomorrow's Seniors — Recognizing that today's juveniles are the seniors of tomorrow is fundamental for securing the Center's long-term sustainability. Actively engaging and investing in the younger generation fosters a community that not only thrives presently, but also lays the foundation for a dedicated, knowledgeable, and supportive senior community in the future. Their involvement today shapes these youngsters into the pillars that will uphold the continued success and sustainability of the Irish Center for generations ahead.

Talented Youth — This year has marked remarkable progress in our music program, particularly with the influx of talented youngsters embracing the tin whistle and fiddle through our youth music initiative. Notably, five budding bagpipe players have transitioned to practicing on actual pipes, while others have embarked on their journey into drumming. Our facility witnesses over sixty dedicated Irish step dancers honing their craft each week during regular practice sessions. It's evident that securing the future of the Center hinges on our ongoing commitment to nurturing and investing in the potential of our youth.

Join Our Team — Embark on an extraordinary journey with us: become a vital part of a once-in-a-lifetime movement dedicated to rejuvenating the Irish Center. Now is the moment to take action. Whether it's signing up as a new member, renewing a lapsed membership, or actively participating in our building committee or fundraising team, your involvement matters greatly. Our journey has been remarkable thus far, and your support will drive us towards new heights. Together, we uphold tradition and guarantee that the vibrant Irish essence flourishes in San Francisco for the generations ahead. Join us in shaping our legacy!

What's Ahead for 2024 — Several live musical acts have already been planned for the spring. Included in the Center's lineup are: Aoife Scott, Derek Warfield and the Young Wolfe Tones, Patrick Ball, Vince Keehan, Paddy Egan & Nicola Stathers, Máire Ní Chathasaigh and Chris Newman. Artist exhibitions, an Irish dance residency, three week summer camp, traditional music festival, third annual music Fleadh, Rock the Gates, and much more are planned for next year.

Line Dancing Classes — Several members of the community suggested we host Line Dancing classes here at the Center, which is very popular across this country and at home in Ireland. Over 60 people turned out in cowboy boots and western attire for the first class on November 16. Next class is Thursday December 21.

December Blood Drive — The SFFD Community Blood Drive takes place on December 13 from 8am to 12 noon. Last September's Blood Drive collected 33 units of blood which helped 99 people.

Annual Giving Campaign — At this significant time of the year, our Annual Appeal donation forms have reached the doorsteps of our valued members, inviting support for our year-end giving campaign. Your generous contributions are the cornerstone of our ability to sustain and enrich our Cultural Programming activities. We deeply rely on your philanthropic spirit to continue nurturing and promoting the vibrant cultural experiences that define and unite our community. Your support ensures that our programming remains robust, engaging and accessible to all, fostering the celebration and preservation of our cherished traditions.

Library and Scholarship Raffle — Many thanks to all those who have purchased and returned raffle tickets in support of the Patrick J. Dowling Library and Leo T. Walsh Scholarship programs. The lucky winners will be announced on December 31 in the Library.

Annual Boutique — Local artisans, vendors, chocolatiers, and crafts people will have plenty of Christmas gifts to offer at the Holiday Boutique on Saturday December 16th. Festive holiday music by David Austin. The Irish Shoppe will be fully stocked with a large range of Irish biscuits and chocolates.

Thank you — Best wishes to board directors Tom McKeon and Kathleen Kraus who are stepping away from their roles on the UICC Board at the end of December. Tom has been involved with the Center for the past 25 years, the most recent five years as a board member, and a volunteer for the first twenty years. Kathleen was our Human Resources lead for the last three years. Thank you for all your help behind the scenes!

Members Meeting — On Thursday December 14 at 7pm, the UICC Board will meet with UICC members during the Christmas Social for the December meeting. Come and hear how the Center performed in the past year and what is planned for 2024. The UICC will celebrate 49 years on 45th and Wawona in 2024.

Merry Christmas — On behalf of the Board of the Center I want to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

PATRICK J. DOWLING LIBRARY

Greetings from the Library ... into the Winter

Read Alouds with Ms. Nancy has been well received and is growing in attendance. Plus what a fun-tastic Seisiun Saturday with three generations attending, dancing and singing along. Littles also created art while antique and new items in our music collection were admired. See you again on December 2nd.

Breaking News! The microfilm reader is fixed! Down for a few years now, a hundred thousand Thank Yous! Céad míle buíochas leat! to Jeffrey, a recent patron from the South Bay, and his skill set. He had come to the library wanting to confirm some information on his Irish ancestors. We had the information on microfilm. He generously volunteered his skill set. Now he has read what he'd looked for, and you can too. What he has to say about our microfilm collection: "The library owns a priceless collection of assets. Included among these are approximately (300) 35mm rolls of microfilm and (120) individual microfiche."

The Library & Scholarship Programs Raffle Returns!

Watch your mailboxes for your 2023 raffle tickets. Need more? Tickets will also be available at the Library Book Sale at the UICC Holiday Boutique on Dec 16, and in the Library.

Collection Highlights: Christmas

An Irish Christmas, John B. Keane

Short stories including: A Christmas gander -- The hermit of Scartnabrock -- Johnny Naile's Christmas -- Mackson's Christmas

The Night Before Christmas, Alice Taylor

Alice Taylor takes a nostalgic, loving look back to a family firmly rooted in tradition and humour and in particular the Christmas traditions of her childhood.

MUSIC BY CELTIC SCANDAL

AT THE UNITED IRISH CULTURAL CENTER, 2700-45TH AVE, SAN FRANCISCO, CA 94116

The Rebel Cork Benevolent Association celebrates 140 years in 2023 while the Rebel Cork Ladies Association celebrates 110 years since its establishment in 1923. The annual Cork dinner has been a fixture at the Irish Center since opening in 1975. The first dinner dance held at the "new" Irish Center in 1975 was the Rebel Cork Ladies Dinner on October 4, 1975. The only time the dinner did not take place was in 2020 due to public health restrictions around large gatherings imposed by the city of San Francisco.

~ 2023 CORKMAN OF THE YEAR ~

Christy was born on August 26th, 1960 in the front room of #2 'The Green', Ballyphehane to Christy and Maura O'Connell. Christy was the younger sibling to his late and dearly missed sister, Antoinette. His father, Christy, was the Sacristan of Ballyphehane Church.

Four months after Christy was born, his dad passed away so him and the rest of his family moved to 'The Lough' to live with his grandparents, Jack and Hannah. The house was full of music and sport. Notably, Christy's uncle, Mick Keating, played a huge part in his childhood, guiding him along and instilling a love for all things GAA.

Christy attended Greenmount NS and moved on to Cork City Technical School. He left school at the young age of 14 and began his apprenticeship as a baker. Christy spent his spare time playing guitar with friends in local bands, ultimately leading to a lifetime of music. Christy was lucky enough to tour the length and breadth of Ireland, England, and all over Europe.

Christy moved to London in 1983. In 1985, his son, Christopher, was born. Christy then made the trek to New York City in 1988 and 5 years later, traveled over to San Francisco where he met his wife, Dympna. They got married back in Ireland in 2001 and are now proud parents to Hannah and Molly.

Christy got involved in the San Francisco Irish community the minute he touched down. He had the good fortune of working with Ranger Pipelines for many years and now works with SF Park and Rec. Upon his arrival in San Francisco, Christy became a familiar presence at local Irish venues, bringing his songs and craic to his gigs no matter how big or small. His level of involvement grew significantly once his daughters started getting involved in the GAA. After being told at a tournament over 10 years ago to help carry a bag of hurls onto the pitch and give the girls a few pointers, he has yet to leave the sidelines. Coaching was one of the best decisions he made here, as it got him further involved in the incredible SFGAA community. To Christy, there is no better way to spend a Sunday than watching the games out on Treasure Island.

Christy and his family feel truly blessed to be a part of San Francisco and its vibrant Irish community. He is very honored to be chosen as Cork Man of the Year, and according to Christy, "You can't get better than that, boy."

KEEPERS OF THE STEPS TAP INTO THE IRISH TRADITIONAL MUSIC ARCHIVES IN DUBLIN

As many know by now, Keepers of the Steps is the UICC special cultural program begun in 2020 that collects and shares the history of Irish step dancing in the San Francisco Bay Area. Committee members are actively planning another exhibition in 2024 and have begun research on some new aspects of the history they have been gathering - and this time their research is taking them to Dublin, Ireland!

Keepers committee lead, Eileen Mize has long been following an international authority on Irish Dance - historian Dr. John Cullinane who is also a longtime teacher and adjudicator (who also happened to be on the judging panel at the first Western Regional Oireachtas in San Francisco held in 1974). Eileen has a collection of Dr. Cullinane's various books on different aspects of his research, and they were of great help to her when curating the first Keepers of the Steps exhibition at the UICC in 2021.

By following the Irish Traditional Music Archive (ITMA) located in Dublin, Ireland on social media, Eileen was alerted to a very interesting acquisition in 2021. Dr. Cullinane donated his decades-old collection of research and historical facts and articles on Irish Dance to An Coimisiún le Rincí Gaelacha (CLRG) who then in turn entrusted it to the ITMA in a special arrangement where the items will be preserved, organized, and made available on behalf of CLRG. Eileen enjoyed following the ensuing weeks and months of reports on cataloging the collection, often thinking how similar the meticulous efforts were to what the Keepers are doing on a localized west coast scale.

Energized by increased global efforts to preserve and document the history of Irish step dancing, and anticipating a planned trip to Ireland with her sister, Eileen reached out to Maeve Gebruers, ITMA head archivist, to inquire about the possibility of taking a look at the collection while she was in town in late November - and plans were made! The Cullinane Archive Collection is an extensive multimedia collection of material relating to the history of Irish dance compiled by Dr. John Cullinane over his lifetime - and the native Corkman is now in his 80s!

Eileen spent several hours on November 20, 2023 in the Merrion Square archive room of ITMA and was amazed and inspired by the amount and breadth of content. She was particularly looking at items related to the western expansion of the CLRG and the emergence of Irish dance in the west with notable names such as Maureen McTeggart Hall and the Healy School. "It was fun to see important pieces of our San Francisco story carefully cataloged in the Dublin archive, and exciting to think how our Keepers of the Steps program at the UICC can play a part in this global effort," shared Eileen.

We look forward to sharing exhibition and other programming dates regarding Keepers of the Steps in the new year and look forward to seeing the unfolding of our rich history of Irish Dance. In the meantime, visit their table at the UICC Christmas Boutique on December 16 and find out how you can get involved. They are still collecting stories and ephemera! BEWARE OF SCAMS!

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM SCAMS

- Never give your bank details over the phone to someone that you don't know
- Remember, you don't have to answer calls from numbers that you don't recognize
- If you think you have been the victim of a scam, call your local police station
- Do not click on a suspicious link in your email or on your phone
- If someone is requesting your personal information over the phone, hang up and ring the organization on their official number (you can find this on your bill/statement)
- Need advice? Call Christina at 415.432.2552 or call the IIPC at 415.752.6006.

We are here to help.

Harnessing our HERITAGE through the power of YOU

Make your gift to the Annual Appeal online today!
www.irishcentersf.org/donations

We are delighted to announce the return of The Reading Room, our virtual Book Club, on Wednesday, January 17, 2024!

The Reading Room will meet through Zoom every other month to discuss the chosen title. All of our books are by Irish authors or authors of Irish descent.

The six books for 2024 and our meeting dates are:

- Old God's Time by Sebastian Barry [January 17]
- How to Build a Boat by Elaine Feeney [March 20]
- Prophet Song by Paul Lynch [May 15]
- Did Ye Hear Mammy Died by Seamas O'Reilly [July 17]
- The Bee Sting by Paul Murray [September 18]
- A Guest at the Feast by Colm Toibin [November 20]

All titles are available at local bookshops or should be in your local library.

From the two-time Booker Prize finalist, Sebastian Barry, Old God's Time is a dazzlingly written novel exploring love, memory, grief, and long-buried secrets. It is a beautiful, haunting work, in which nothing is quite as it seems, Old God's Time is about what we live through, what we live with, and what may survive of us.

Join us on Wednesday, January 17, 2024 at 7:00 p.m. for another lively and entertaining discussion!

Go to linktr.ee/sfiipc to find the link! See you there!
