BOARD MESSAGE

THE CITY GREENLIGHTS CONSTRUCTION OF A NEW IRISH CENTER

Liam Reidy

After nearly twenty months navigating the city's planning procedures, our blueprint to reconstruct the Irish Center was officially endorsed at City Hall by the board of supervisors on Tuesday, December 12, 2023.

A celebratory milestone was marked at the Center on Saturday, December 16th, with Mayor London Breed gracing us with her presence for a ceremony that sealed the deal to progress with the new building plans.

What initially began as an exploration to modernize the facility in the spring of 2021 has now culminated in the approval of a splendid new building. This state-of-the-art establishment will house a diverse range of event spaces, a museum, library, exhibition areas, and will serve as a hub for the numerous cultural and educational initiatives we envision for the future.

A heartfelt thank you goes out to everyone who has contributed to propelling us to this stage in the development process. Our donors, supporters, and the members of the new building team—specifically Leo Cassidy, Mark Conroe, Redmond Lyons, and Michael Coleman—have played pivotal roles in this achievement.

Today, we stand at a significant juncture in the narrative of our Irish-American journey in the western region. More than fifty years ago, a passionate alliance of individuals from diverse backgrounds united to establish a haven for the Irish community.

Those who came before us didn't just construct a center; they forged a legacy and strengthened a community. As we face the challenge of reimagining and rejuvenating this cherished space, we require that same collective spirit.

Your participation isn't merely welcomed; it's imperative. The reality is, the success of this vital project hinges on your support. We implore you to be part of this new chapter in our center's legacy, one that will ensure our traditions and stories thrive for generations.

Whether you can offer time, expertise, or financial backing, your involvement will be the bedrock of our future. This is a rallying call to all who hold dear our Irish-American heritage and the power of a unified community.

Join us in this monumental endeavor. Together, we can craft a future as luminous and enduring as the legacy we've inherited. Your support is the linchpin to transforming our vision into reality.

For more information on how you can contribute, please reach out to us. Each show of support brings us closer to our objective.

Thank you for being an indispensable part of shaping our community's future.

Winter Féile — Join us for the Winter Féile! The John and Maureen Kennelly Memorial Feis sets the stage for a lively weekend of Irish music, song, and dance from Friday, January 12, to Sunday, January 14. The festivities kick off as we reopen the pub for 2024 at 5pm on January 12, featuring the musical talents of the Kavanaugh Brothers from 7pm onwards.

Our two-day Féis starts at 8am and keeps the energy going until 6pm each day. Plus, there's a special fundraiser hosted by local Irish musicians supporting a humanitarian kids' charity starting at 4pm in the pub. And for a thrilling night, don't miss The Hooks, a local rock band, as they pay tribute to The Pogues in a concert starting at 8:30pm.

As the Féis comes to a close upstairs in the St. Patrick's room, the music continues with The Shams performing from 2pm to 4pm in the pub. It's a celebration not to be missed!

Annual Appeal Thanks — Many thanks to all those who have supported our end of year appeal with a contribution that will be used to support our Irish cultural programming this year. A portion of this year's appeal will help support our three week summer camp and the youth music classes at the Center.

St. Brigids Festival — The festival of St. Brigid will be honored on Saturday February 3rd with a cross weaving workshop. Registration closes on February 2nd.

Kids Library Program — During the Winter Féile weekend, Ms. Nancy's read Aloud runs from 10:15am-10:45am in the library. Musical instruments and storytelling, sign up online.

Sean's Puppet Show — Our kids Programming continues to expand with a puppet show on Sunday February 4th with Sean Powers. Don't miss it! Sign up online.

Happy New Year! — I want to wish all those in the UICC community a safe and prosperous new year!

CROSS WEAVING WORKSHOP ST. BRIGID'S DAY CELEBRATION FEBRUARY 4

Back by popular demand and hosted by the UICC, the Irish Marvels cultural program, and the Patrick J. Dowling Library, this family friendly workshop offers instruction and materials for making your own cross. Tea, soda bread, and other refreshments will be provided.

There were many regional styles and variations throughout Ireland with different materials used. Families would recite prayers, bless the rushes or straw with holy water and then each make the crosses. They would hang them over the door and around the home to welcome St Brigid. Many households kept the cross each year in the under-thatch of the house and you could tell how old a house was or how long the family had lived there by the number of crosses in the roof!

Space is limited! Registration closes on Feb. 2 so as to ensure we have enough materials for all attendees. There will be a limited number of spaces available at the door.

The Future Is Now

PATRICK J. DOWLING LIBRARY

Greetings from the Library ... in January / i mí Eanáir

January first is New Year's Day and the Feastday of St. Cuan, Irish abbot, also called Moncan or Mochua. He supposedly lived almost one hundred years and founded many churches and monasteries in Ireland. Death: 6th century. – Catholic.org

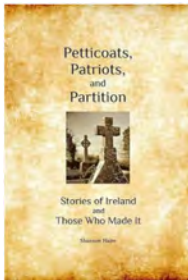

Breaking News! While we celebrate the return of the sun and longer days, the Library is pleased to announce the addition of new volunteer Larry Brown, who was a huge help with our Boutique and Library team. Thank you Larry, Chris, Pati and Nancy for all your energy and enthusiasm keeping the Library open and offering relief at the Boutique for the entire day.

In addition on Dec 16 we accepted a donation of several boxes of books from a lovely family with connections to a bookstore in Kerry. Stay tuned for more details as we work through these books.

Thank you for supporting the Library & Scholarship Programs Raffle!

On behalf of the Library, and the Scholarship Committee, we are deeply grateful for all the support you show our yearly Raffle. It is truly the largest fundraiser of the year for these two special organisations. Congratulations in advance to our winners! Thank you to all who sent in their tickets and to our sponsors both anonymous and Duggan's Serra who underwrote our costs so that the net amount raised is maximised for both the Library and Leo T. Walsh Scholarship programs. The library is the repository for the Scholarship essays each year. You are invited in to read the amazing works by our local student scholars. We are proud of all of them!

Collection Highlights: New Year, New Titles

Petticoats, Patriots, and Partition, Shannon Haire

Local author Shannon Haire brings us "This entertaining and educational history of Ireland focuses on short biographies, quirky facts, and the obscure moments that have shaped Ireland over the last hundred years. It is told in three sections ... Petticoats, Patriots, and Partition." – Amazon.com

Jamie O'Rourke and the Big Potato, Tomie dePaola

"This inspired Irish folktale clearly illustrates that taking the easy way out is sometimes more trouble than it's worth . . .

DePaola's characteristic homespun style and round, childlike faces add plenty of zip to this silly story." --Publishers Weekly

SHINE! GATHERING FULL OF GRATITUDE

We kicked off a very busy and special day at the Irish Center on December 16, 2023 with a special reception in the St. Francis room—Shine! We had a moment to pay special thanks those early investors and believers in our #Project2025 and hear a few remarks from President Liam Reidy and Consul General Micheál Smith (Consulate General of Ireland San Francisco) as well as get a sneak peek at a UICC website redesign that Mary Teahan and the Marketing Committee are working on. So much to celebrate! It is with much gratitude that we enjoy the progress that continues to be made.

DOWLING LIBRARY BOOK DONATIONS

Our Patrick J. Dowling Library received a significantly large number of donated books and cultural treasures from community members during the past year. Due to space constraints and limited onsite storage at the Center, we are forced to move some of the duplicate books offsite temporarily until we move into the new library space down the road.

A big thank you and shout out to Keith Mulligan & Co, at Shannon Moving and Storage for taking care of our storage needs.

Pallets of Irish Center books await final storage.

Philomena (Phyllis) O'Connor, was called Home to the Lord December 8, 2023 and is once again with her true love Patrick, her husband (deceased 1988) and her son Neal (deceased 1980). A beloved mother, grandmother, aunt, and friend to many.

We are delighted to announce the return of The Reading Room, our virtual Book Club, on Wednesday, January 17, 2024!

The Reading Room will meet through Zoom every other month to discuss the chosen title. All of our books are by Irish authors or authors of Irish descent.

The six books for 2024 and our meeting dates are:

Old God's Time by Sebastian Barry [January 17]

How to Build a Boat by Elaine Feeney [March 20]

Prophet Song by Paul Lynch [May 15]

Did Ye Hear Mammy Died by Seamas O'Reilly [July 17]

The Bee Sting by Paul Murray [September 18]

A Guest at the Feast by Colm Toibin [November 20]

All titles are available at local bookshops or should be in your local library.

From the two-time Booker Prize finalist, Sebastian Barry, Old God's Time is a dazzlingly written novel exploring love, memory, grief, and long-buried secrets. It is a beautiful, haunting work, in which nothing is quite as it seems, Old God's Time is about what we live through, what we live with, and what may survive of us.

Join us on Wednesday, January 17, 2024 at 7:00 p.m. for another lively and entertaining discussion!

Go to linktr.ee/sfiipc to find the link! See you there!
